

ETT LIMITED

BUSINESS OVERVIEW

ETT Limited is a Company incorporated in the year 1993 under the Companies Act, 1956. Brief profile of the Company is detailed hereunder:

- ETT Limited is primarily engaged in the business of development and management of Software Technology Centers, Multimedia Houses, Information Technology Parks and other related activities. The Company is promoted by Senior Technocrats from a well known Development Group focusing on Infrastructure projects in the North region of India and has good Infrastructure project base in NCR of Delhi.
- ETT Group with a grand history, has grown into a multi dimensional organization whilst excelling in the field of Real Estate Development and providing intelligent and environment friendly Office Complexes, Townships, Boutique Hotels and IT / ITeS Parks.
- Today, the ETT Group services the real estate needs of rapidly growing industry and related community from its Corporate Headquarters based out in NCR of Delhi having highly experienced Company Executives, a fully staffed Marketing Department, the Commercial Division and in-house property management services through dedicated Techno-Mechanical teams.
- The business activities of the Company rest on the principles of high quality construction technology and highest degree of customer satisfaction. Apart from construction excellence, the Company offers design elegance in all its real estate projects. The Company pride itself in fostering innovative thinking and keeping itself attuned to the potential changes that the future holds.
- The ETT Group has been set up with a clear focus to augment overall productivity and growth through its projects, which are conceived keeping in view the present day requirements of big Corporate in terms of quality construction, state of art facilities and large working floor plates.